

Medical.

THIS IS THE SEASON OF YEAR

IN WHICH ALMOST EVERY ONE SHOULD USE A FEW BOTTLES OF

HOOFLAND'S

GERMAN BITTERS,

or,

Hoofland's German Tonic.

They will purify the blood.

They will give tone to the system.

They will give strength to the debilitated.

They will give energy.

They will give health and vigor.

THEY DO ALL THIS BY

PURIFYING THE BLOOD

AND STRENGTHENING THE

DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

The Intelligencer.

The Register yesterday refers to our editorial of the previous morning as "The Governor's Apology." It is perhaps due to Governor Stevenson to say that his Excellency is in no wise responsible, directly or indirectly, for any suggestion or statement in that article. We stated what we believed true without any suggestion from the Governor.

The Nashville Press and Times calls upon the Press of Tennessee to join without distinction of party, in urging the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment. It says that the amendment can affect Northern States only; that Tennessee has adopted colored suffrage of her own accord, and that she has everything to gain and nothing to lose by the ratification.

The National Executive Committee of the colored laborers and mechanics have issued a call for the convention, to be held in Washington on the first Monday in December. The call is general, and no one will be excluded who bears the credentials of honesty and industry.

Iowa has recently taken its census, and returns from all but five counties show a population of 1,011,552. During the past two years 20,000 dwellings have been erected in the State. Such are the effects of radicalism.

MINOR TELEGRAMS.

Forty-one thousand dollars have been subscribed and a fine estate chased in Boston for a home for aged men. Additional subscriptions to the amount of $12,000 are being made to complete it.

A. C. Howe, an aged and well known merchant of Boston, died Tuesday.

A farmer was robbed of $13,000 at Mason City, Missouri, last Monday.

Sam. Crompton was arrested at Chicago, for committing the deed; the most of the money was recovered.

Col. Broadhead, Massachusetts State

Liquor Agent, was before Commissioner

Hallett, of Boston, to-day, on complaint of Col. Linn, collector of the Ninth District, for selling liquors to Iowa agents without revenue stamps. He was held in $1,000 bail for trial. The defendant claims that the liquors sold in small packages and required no stamps.

The Olympic Base Ball Club, of Pittsburgh, left yesterday for Cincinnati, to play the Red Stockings to-morrow.

The Governor of Missouri has appointed as delegates to the Southern Commercial Convention: Gen. Isaac T.

Shepherd, Robert Heinecker, Judge

J. H. Case, Col. John W. Richardson, wood and Hon. Theodore Brewer.

Barlow Wedd's Courtship.

The following passage from the autobiography of Mr. Wedd appears in the Commercial Advertiser of the 28th:

"While working for Colonel William

A. Stone, in the office of the Herkimer American, in the winter of 1813, I became acquainted with a bright, intelligent German boy, whose name, after a space of fifty-seven years, is a universal household word, and whose face is familiar to every man, woman and child in our country. He was the son of a German physician, who had preached in that language to German congregations, and residing a couple of miles outside the village.

The boy, then about twelve years old, attending an English School in the village, was very fond of newspaper reading, and came every day to the printing office to read and to borrow books. He subsequently became a change printer. I was more particularly interested in him, perhaps from the circumstance that in the mornings he brought notes from, and in the evenings carried responses to a young lady, who was a married sister who resided near his father's house, and who six years afterward became my wife. That German, then subsequently a member of the Herkimer District in Congress, and now the Treasurer of the United States

—FRANCIS S. SPINNEY.

THE COLLIERY DISASTER.

Discovery that the furnace was burning and had fired the coal.

The last fatal blow abandoned at 4

P. M. Tuesday.

The Mines to be Flooded.

The Numbers of the Lost Overstated.

A SANCTON special agent there were not less than 138 nor more than 150 people in the Avondale mine, when the accident occurred. Some men who went down in the shaft, reported that the fire in the furnace was a party of men assumption was that when the fire broke out, the miners had kept their senses, and having dragged the fire had fled to the upper chamber, closing the doors behind them. Supposing, then, that the rescuers proceeded on the simple plan of forcing fresh air into the mine this was continued till four in the afternoon, when a party of men penetrating 200 feet and opening the door made the discovery that the fire was still burning in the furnace, and had ignited the coal piled outside of it. Those underground, who had been in the mine, saw the situation, upon hearing this fact, saw in a moment that all hope was at an end, and that all that could be done was to drag the lost miners from the tomb to Christian burial. A change of operations was then instantly decided on. It was determined to direct immediate efforts to the extinguishing of the fire. Means were now arranged that end, and the night will be occu-pyed by deluging the mine with water.

SCANTON, Pa., Sept. 7.

At 7:50 o'clock, to-night John Price,

E. Morris, Wm. Thomas and Elijah

Thomas, who were in the mine, were second trip for the purpose of arranging the house. They were down twenty minutes, and E. Morris was brought up, bleeding, fainting before he reached the carriage. The second trip proved more than he could stand. He was resuscitated in a short time. The others were all right. They succeeded in getting the house ready to haul the terrible tenth at last—more than a hundred dead bodies taken out—Their shocking condition.

SCANTON, Sept. 8.

Four men who went down the shaft yesterday afternoon, and explored a gangway, opened a way leading to a furnace, and found it full of burning coal and a lot of coal, near by blazing.

One became overpowered and they returned. One subsequently died, where they were with difficulty restored, and the effects of the gas and blue damp, which was following them. It was then determined to pour water into the gangway, opened a way leading to a

coal and a lot of coal, near by blazing.
